Legal Responsibility of Individual Snowmobiler:

Duties of snowmobile owners and operators. It is recognized that snowmobiling is a voluntary activity that may be hazardous. It shall be the duty of snowmobile owners and operators:

- To keep their snowmobiles in proper working order.
- To follow any and all other rules of conduct as are prescribed pursuant to section 25.03 of this article.
- Not to operate a snowmobile in any area not designated for snowmobiling.
- Not to operate a snowmobile in a manner beyond their limits or ability and speed to overcome variations in trail conditions and configuration and surface or subsurface conditions which may be caused or altered by weather, slope or trail maintenance work or snowmobile use.
- To familiarize themselves with signage and trail markers before operating.
- Not to snowmobile on a trail or portion thereof that has been designated as "closed".
- Not leave the scene of any accident resulting in personal injury to another party until such time as assistance arrives, except for the purpose of summoning aid.
- Not to willfully stop on any trail where such stopping is likely to impede the use of that trail by others.
- Not to willfully remove, deface, alter or otherwise damage signage, warning devices or implements, or other safety devices.

"Negligence in the use or operation of a snowmobile shall be attributable to the owner." Section 25.23, NYS Parks Law Liability for Negligence.

This map is for general purposes only. No Inference is intended as to the conditions of these trails. They are maintained at the discretion of the local doos and may be closed as unsuitable for the snowmobiling from time to time. Trail Routes may change due to landowner considerations. Please note restricted conditions of shaded trails.

Respect private property Abuse it and - You Loose the Trail.

More than 80% of the snowmobile trails in Washington County are on PRIVATE LAND.

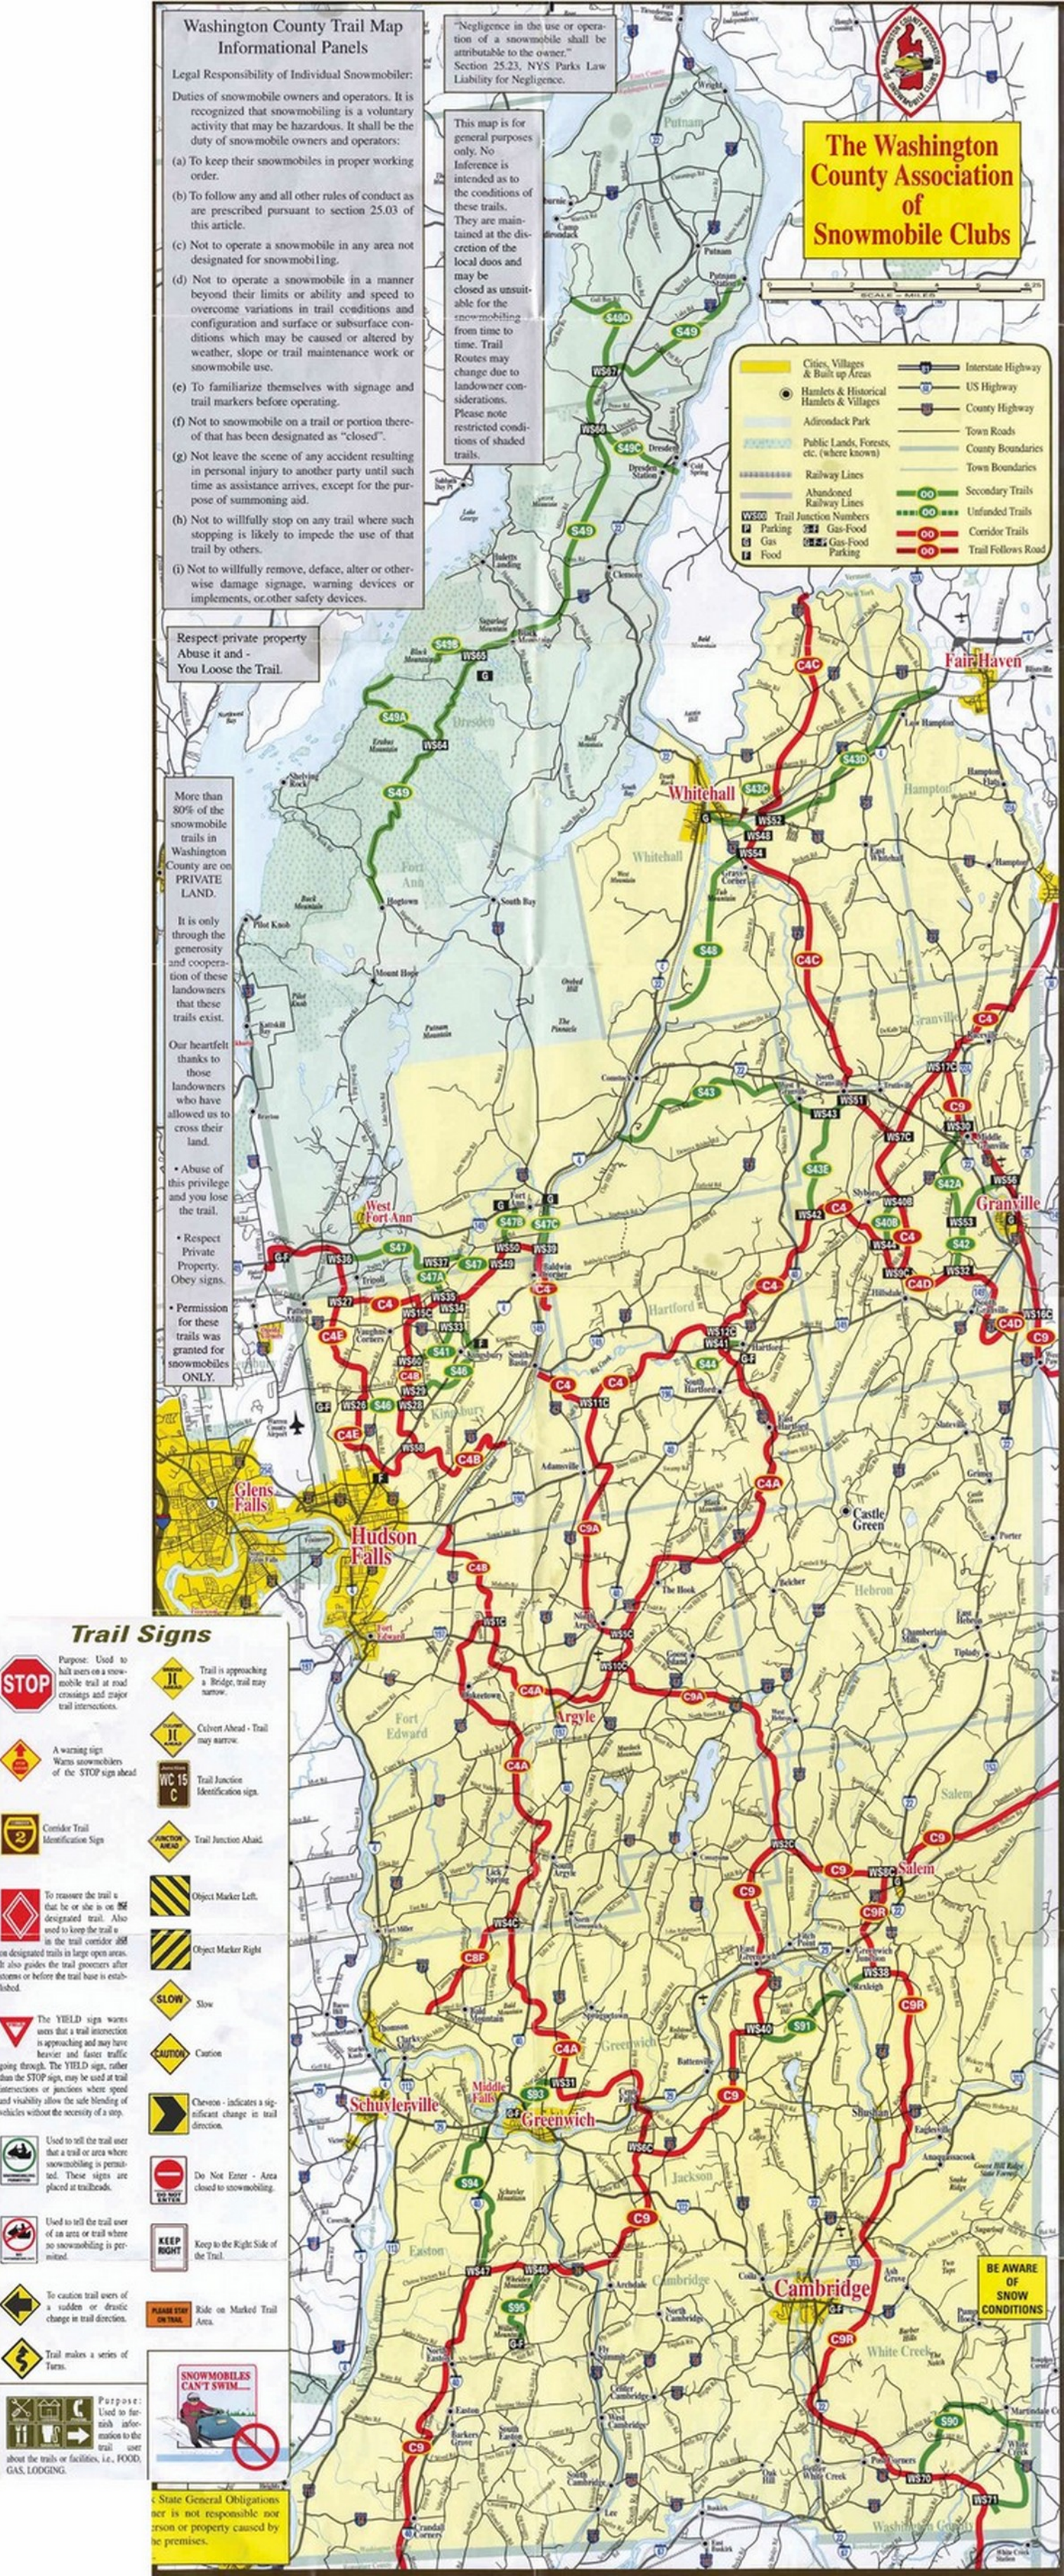

It is only through the generosity and cooperation of these landowners that these trails exist.

Our heartfelt thanks to those landowners who have allowed us to cross their land.

- Abuse of this privilege and you lose the trail.
- Respect Private Property. Obey signs.
- Permission for these trails was granted for snowmobiles ONLY.
